Having become the manager of the business

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 17, 1907.

Pear Assassination.

As a result of the two recent murderous holdups at Port Norfolk and Pinner's Point, the residents in the two localities are greatly excited, and there is hardly a man who will venture on the streets at a late hour at night unless armed, and even then he fears that he might be mistaken for a highwayman and fired upon.

On Monday night just such a mistake was made, and a young man named King narrowly escaped with his life, several shots having been fired at him.
It seems that since the last holdup on the streets at Pinner's Point a number of the residents have formed themselves into a vigilance corps in order to capture the perpetrators of the crimes.

Saturday night at a late hour young King was seen standing near Brock's furniture store. Thinking that he was a burglar, one of the preservers of the peace demanded that he throw up his hands. King was taken by surprise, and, believing the men were highway, immediately turned and ran. At that point the men who tried to take him into custody began firing at him. None of the shots took effect, however, and King
store was reached. He ran into the place completely exhausted, and it was then learned that a serious mistake had been made.

food in the country.

Smith Confesses.

John Smith, charged with the assassination of Dr. B. D. Cox, went on the witness stand at Lexington, Ky., yesterday and fully confessed to the assassination of Jim Cockrell, saying Britton was not present, but that he, Court Jett and John Abner killed Cockrell. Smith fired once, Jett four times and Abner three times.

After detailing movements of the various men Smith said that while they were discussing plans to kill Dr. Cox it was learned that Cockrell would be in Jackson the following day. It was immediately arranged to kill Cockrell from the courthouse window with guns given by Judge Hargis for the purpose. That night Smith, John Abner and Curtis Jett secreted themselves in the courthouse. The next day, when Cockrell passed the courthouse, the men stationed at the window fired upon him. He fell at the second fire.

Smith, after giving his testimony, was taken, under guard, by his brother to a boarding-house.

The News.—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure—and has been for 20 years. The National Law requires that if any person enter into a rough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison marks on Dr. Shoop's label, and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label. And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chances, particularly with your children, and insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure.
Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there marking Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Sold by E. S.
Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.
